Letter to the Candidates

(The following letter has been sent to all candidates in the upcoming June 29 recall election. We hope to receive answers prior to the June 1 special election so that the residents of Seaside will know how the candidates feel about the issue of urban redevelopment.)

Sir:

The Seaside POST and News-Sentinel would like to know what your position is concerning the issue of urban development and its influence on the city of Seaside. Your answers to the following questions will go far in informing our readers what your stand on this all-important issues is.

*Are you in favor of the elected body of Seaside, the city council, becoming the Urban Renewal Agency in Seaside?

*Do you think that the Urban Renewal Agency has too many employees?

*Should future urban renewal projects be put to a vote of the people?

*Do you think that any money given to Seaside for urban renewal should be counted against Seaside in any future Federal Revenue Sharing plan?

*Do you think that the Urban Renewal Agency employees should live in the city of Seaside?

We realize that these are pointed questions, but they go to the heart of the matter to be decided by the voters of Seaside when they vote June 1 to decide whether the functions of the Urban Development Agency should or should not be turned over to the City Council.

The voters are entitled to know your stand on this vital issue before the June 1 election.

Thank you for your consideration of these questions. We will be glad to print your replies in the May 27 issue of The POST, providing we receive them by May 22, which is our deadline for that issue.

Task Force Adopts Recommendations to Curtail Unemployment

A series of recommendations aimed at alleviating unemployment problems in the construction industry were adopted last week by the Governor's Labor-Management Task Force on Construction Affairs.

Brian R. Van Camp, Acting Secretary, State Business and Transportation Agency and Chairman of the Task Force, said the recommendations pertain to solutions which could be taken by the Governor, the Federal Government and labor and industry lenders. They include:

*Offering engineering assistance from the state to local government for planning and developing the capability to use federal and other governmental funds.

*Programming government funds to areas according to unemployment.

*Continue to urge the release of such federal money as highway trust funds.

*Extending construction contract time limits placed on contractors to cut down on overtime accrued when unforeseen difficulties arise at the work site.

*Urging the federal government to give a high percentage of reimbursement for earthquake-damaged facilities.

*Inform skilled workers of employment opportunities wherever they may be.

The 28-member task force was formed last November by Governor Reagan. Its members represent contractors, home builders, finance experts, labor spokesmen and state officials.

Prior to adopting its resolutions the task force heard reports from John F. Maloney, Deputy Director, State Department of Public Works and George Smith, Deputy Director, Department of Industrial Relations.

Smith declared that unemployment in the California construction industry reached 19 percent in March. He cited curtailed spending by the Department of Defense as a substansive factor for the lack of construction work and pointed out that 32 percent of all defense contract cutbacks affected west coast industries.

The unemployment rate has been increasing for the last three years in the California construction industry to such degree that the State is now considerably above national levels.

In 1969, the national rate was 6.7 percent and California 8 percent. In 1970, the national rate was 12.2 percent and California 17 percent. No national 1971 figures were available but Smith was certain the rate was under California's 19 percent.

Maloney lauded the task force for actions that assisted in two recent accomplishments.

The first was the receipt of $38.4-million in federal highway funds from the federal government to aid specific areas of high unemployment in Monterey, San Diego, Orange and Riverside counties.

The second was the assistance rendered in bringing about an early settlement to differences that arose between the federal government and California after the recent suspension of the Davis-Bacon Act by President Nixon. The Act establishes certain minimum wages that will be paid to construction workers on any projects that are funded even in part by federal monies.

Maloney said the task force was instrumental in bringing about the unconstrained discussion between government officials, labor and management that assisted in bringing about an early settlement.

Gateway Center to House Graham Buick

Seaside's Monterey Peninsula Auto Center will have a new resident soon.

Graham Buick Company of Monterey have announced that they have applied for a building permit for a 16,000-square-foot, $350,000 sales and service facility in the center.

The agency, which has been located in Monterey for almost 17 years, hopes to begin construction of the new structure within the next month.

They will occupy a three-acre site at No. 6 Heitzinger Plaza on the Del Monte Boulevard side of the center.

They will be the third major auto dealer in the 72-acre center to leave Monterey.

Wester Volkswagen and Butts Pontiac-Cadillac opened their showrooms here previously.

Other dealerships that have indicated a desire to move to the center are Principal Lincoln-Mercury and Kendall Motor Company of Seaside, a Datsun dealership, according to Russel Hoss, executive director of the redevelopment agency.

Banquet Kicks Off Fund Raising Drive

W. Robert Stover, president of Western Girl Incorporated of San Francisco and member of the National Board of Director of Young Life, will be the speaker for the county-wide Young Life Fund Drive Spring Banquet.

The banquet, being held tomorrow Friday, at 7:30 p.m. at the Del Monte Hyatt House is the kick-off for Young Life's Fund Drive. The primary thrust of the campaign which has a goal of $60,000, will be May 21 through June 7.

Young Life in Monterey County provides over 400 high school students weekly with a program of spiritual growth through club leadership, campus contact and weekend and summer camping adventures.

Donations can be mailed to Young Life, P.O. Box 1251, Monterey.

Jobs For Youth Are Needed

Employers are strongly urged by the U. S. Department of Labor to hire as many teenagers as they can for summer jobs this year as part of the annual youth opportunity campaign.

The department also announced that the child labor laws contain special provisions to encourage vacation employment of students.

* Youths 18 or older may be hired for any kind of job. There are no restrictions on the type of work that may be offered them at the federal minimum wage of $1.60 an hour and time and one-half for any work over 40 hours in a week.
* The only jobs not open to teen-agers under 18 are those declared hazardous by the Secretary of Labor. These include work in explosives and radioactive materials, operating certain power machinery, most hoisting apparatus such as fork and man lifts, jobs in slaughter houses and meat packing and processing, mining, roofing, demolition, driving or working as outside helper on most motor vehicles, most jobs in logging and sawmill operations and most jobs in manufacturing bricks, tiles, and similar products.
* Youngsters 14 and 15 years old also cannot work on manufacturing or processing or work as public messengers. They may hold office and sales jobs in work connected with warehousing, storage, transportation, communications, public utilities and construction.

Wage-Hour technicians of the Labor Department said that there are special minimum rates permissable in retail and service work, as well as culture. The federal wage hour law authorizes the Secretary of Labor to grant certificates to individual retail, service and farm establishments that permit them to pay full-time students at 85 percent of the federal minimums, which are $1.60 an hour in non-farm work and $1.30 in agriculture.

Workers under 16 can work only between the hours of 7 am and 9 pm from June 1 through Labor Day and may not work more than 8 hours a day or 40 a week.

Exceptions to this are in farm work outside school hours, newspaper delivery to consumers, caddying, performing in theatrical, motion picture, or broadcast productions and children working for their parents in manufacturing jobs.

The minimum age is 16 to work at dangerous jobs on farms. These include operating certain tractors and farm machinery, handling dangerous agricultural chemicals, working in enclosed areas with certain types of breeding animals or in places deficient in oxygen or containing toxics, such as in storage areas or manure pits.

MPC Test Is Saturday

A placement test for persons planning to enroll in certain summer session courses at Monterey Peninsula College has been scheduled for this Saturday, May 22, beginning 8:30 a.m. in MPC's Lecture-Forum 103.

A satisfactory grade on the test - or evidence of previous successful college work - is a prerequisite for courses in anthropology, black studies, English, history, humanities, government, psychology, sociology and speech.

Mail registration for some 75 academic and vocational courses to be offered days and evenings in the summer will continue until June 3, with brochures containing application forms available on request in the college administration building.

MPC's summer session which starts June 21, is open to all high school graduates and other 18 years of age who may "profitably pursue a course of study."

High school students who will become seniors in the fall may also attend with written approval from their schools under the college's "open door" policy.

Meeting Will Discuss Sea Grant Program

Grant to Help County Buy Park Lands

A $ 225,250 "Opeh Space" grant for acquisition of park lands in Monterey County was approved recently by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

The HUD grant will assist the county to acquire 427 acres for Jack's Peak Park, located in the hilly forested section above the residential areas of Monterey and Carmel.

James H. Price, Director of the HUD Area Office in San Francisco, said the proposed park will effectively curb resedential encroachment on one of the finest remaining land parcels in the Monterey peninsula and makes excellent vistas of both Carmel and Monterey Bays accessible to the public.

Jack's Peak Park will offer camping and day-use facilities to the estimated 200,000 population of Monterey County as well as attract users from all parts of the San Francisco Bay Area.

The County's participation of $425,250 for land purchases will be made available from the County's general fund.

Open House at Child Center

In observance of "The Week of the Young Child," the Monterey Peninsula College parent participation nursery school and child study center will hold "open house" this Saturday, May 22, from 10 a.m. to noon.

The school, located in the former theater arts building at MPC, is directed by Mrs. Charles Hawkins.

Villa Del Monte Having Open House

An Open House will be held at the Villa Del Monte on tomorrow (Friday) from 1 until 5 p.m.

Various apartments will be open for viewing and each "open house" will be hosted by its tenant.

Residents will serve as tour guides, parking attendants and will provide and serve refreshments throughout the afternoon.

Popular entertainers, Jerry Winters and Sioux Scott from the Outrigger Restaurant will provide a 30-minute show at approximately 4 p.m.

This function is being sponsored by the Seaside Civic League, Inc. and the "Young at Heart" Seniors Association of the Villa.

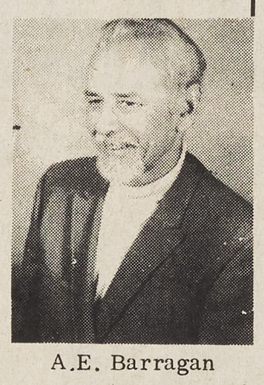

Miss Lois B. Baughman, Project Director, is coordinating the affairs.

All interested persons in the community are cordially invited to attend.

Is the progress and development of the City of Seaside to be edcided by its citizens through their duly elected officials or is the city to be run by the Urban Redevelopment Agency under the direction of Mr. Weingarten and Mr. Haddad. This is the crux of the issue to be decided June 1, when Seaside voters go to the polls.

A yes vote will put the control of our redevelopment in the hands of the appointed agency, which has badly mismanaged. of the appointed agency, which has badly mismanaged it for the last few years. There are so many instances where the agency, together with the convinance of Haddad and Weingarten, the former city attorney, who still is attorney for the redevelopment agency, have moved against the best interests of the citizens of this community that it would take two pages of newprint to begin to tell it all. Suffice it to say that on page 2 of this issue of The POST-NEWS-SENTINEL there is a letter (printed in the form of an advertisement) which illustrates the conspiracy that has existed at city hall between Haddad and the redevelopment agency. This lists only one of the many times that actions have been taken independently by the agency to thwart the will of the voters of Seaside.

In this instance a private developer presented plans to the city to build a shopping center, which would included a Payless Drug Store. The plans for this center were never divulged to the elected representatives of Seaside. Haddad didn't want these plans told because they were not submitted by "his" group and the building of a shopping

County Is Reimbursed

California's counties, cities, school districts and special districts have received another $141,185,476 in reimbursement for tax income losses resulting from the State-mandated Homeowners Property Tax Exemption during Fiscal Year 1970-71, State Controller Houston I. Flournoy announced recently.

The distribution from the State General Fund represented 65 percent of claims for reimbursement totaling $217,212,888.

Flournoy said the distribution completed the second full year of such payments made under 1968 legislation which granted homeowners a $750 property money from General Fund to reimbuse local entities for their losses due to the exemption.

Monterey County received $1,259,706.

Cigarette Taxes Are Distributed

State Controller Houston I. Flournoy has announced the distribution of $5,592,200 to counties and cities as the April apportionment of cigarette tax.

Monterey County received $6,391.33 and Seaside got $7,418.44.

The 58 counties' share was $1,044,382 and the cities' share totaled $4,547,818.

This distribution represents 30 percent of the revenue deposited in the Cigarette Tax Fund during the month of March 1971, less the State's administrative costs of $23,163.

Other peninsula cities receiving funds were: Carmel-$2,207.79; Pacific Grove-$2,954.53; Del Rey Oaks-$660.08; Monterey-$10,200.74 and Sand City-$154.44.

MPUSD Honors Vaughn for His Handbook

Seaside High School counselor Bedford Vaugh was honored recently by the Monterey Peninsula Unified School District for his publication "A Guide to Western Colleges, a Handbook for Counselors of Minority Students."

Vaughn, who presented copies of his publication to Allen J. Petersdorf, superintendent of MPUSD and G. Gervaise Davis III, board president, as well as other members of the board, was officially complimented by MPUSD.

The book, which is available from the Monterey Publishing Company, Inc., P.O. Box 736, Seaside, will serve as a guide to help minority students into college, an understanding of college, an understanding of the difficulties encountered by Chicanos, blacks and other minorities in obtaining counseling for college entrance and an assistance to counselors in helping students with their college selection.

Dr. James R. Solberg, principal of Seaside High, in the Forward, says, Mr. Vaughn's volume comes as a ray of hope to those of us who attend daily to the educational needs of minority pupils."

"The real value in the study," Solberg continued, "does not reside exclusively in schools with significant minority populations. It can be a useful tool for educators working in all kinds of school settings. Counselors and administrators need to know the full scope of programs offered in colleges and universities if they are to provide effective guidance to their clients...All of us believe that this study should receive the widest possible circulation and that this work can provide the basis for a broadening of the counseling dimension in high schools."

FREE GIFT - Bedford Vaughn, Seaside High School Counselor, presents, G. Gervaise Davis III with complimentary copy of his book, "A Guide to Western Colleges, a Handbook for Counselors of Minority Students."

CLEAN UP DAY - Seaside High School students, under direction of Robb Stradley, biology and physics teacher, spent entire day recently cleaning various lakes in Seaside. Most productive spot was Roberts Lake, where students pulled, among other things, various parts of automobiles from water. Stradley hopes that students' interest will inspire other residents of city to do their part in cleaning up.

Salinas Gets Yuba City's Vice Mayor

Gus N. Scourkes vice mayor of Yuba City, has been promoted to personnel manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Company's Coast Valleys Division, headquartered in Salinas.

W. L. Murray, division manager, announced the appointment of Scourkes to succeed Ralph R. James, who died suddenly in April.

Scourkes has been personnel manager since 1964 in the company's Colgate Division, which is headquartered in Marysville and has 400 employees who serve a total 216, 237 electric and gas customers in San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties and northern Santa Barbara county.

Scourkes' increased responsibilities include supervising the hiring and placement of new employees, conducting benefit programs and administering labor contracts.

Scourkes was elected to the Yuba City city council last year and has been named vice mayor by his fellow councilmen when the vacancy at Salinas brought him unexpected promotion. The transfer will necessitate Scourkes' resignation from the city council.

Scourkes was first employed in 1949 by the company's employee association in San Francisco after graduation from the University of San Francisco, where he earned a bachelor of arts degree. He later joined the company's personnel department in the P-G&E general office and the San Francisco Division before going to Marysville.

In the Yuba City-Marysville community he has been a director of the YMCA, past president of the Family Services Agency and a member of the Yuba-Sutter Comprehensive Health Planning council, the master advisory committee of the Tri-City Vocational Education Committee and the Yuba Sutter Chamber of Commerce.

He is a member of the National Society for Program Instruction, the Pacific Coast Electrical Association and other industry and personnel related organizations.

During World War II Scourkes served with 353rd Infantry in Europe. He was discharged in 1946 and entered USF.

Since then he has completed specialized personnel courses at the University of California at Berkeley and at San Jose State College.

Scourkes and his wife, Ann, are the parents of a daughter and two sons. They are Mrs. Oliver Hinds of Redding; John N. Scourkes, a student at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo and Michael C. Scourkes, a junior at Yuba City High School.

Is your lawn green and growing well?

There is a program to follow to achieve a good, green, healthy lawn. Fertilizing regularly is the most importnat step.

A lawn should be fertilized once each month. Set up a schedule for fertilizing.

The following is a schedule that works well for Seaside's sandy soil. The amounts used are for a 1000 square foot lawn. More or les fertilizing will be needed according to the size of your lawn. Start fertilizing in January by using three pounds of Urea; in February use five pounds of a complete fertilizer such as 20-5-10; in March use three pounds of ammonium nitrate; in April use five pounds of ammonium sulfate; in May use seven pounds of a complete fertilizer with micro nutrients; in June use 10 bags of steer manure; in July use three bags of redwood mulch; in August use 10 bags of steer manure; in September use five pounds of ammonium sulfate; in October use two pounds of Urea; in November use three pounds of Urea and in December use three pounds of ammonium nitrate.

Always fertilize on a moist, never a wet, lawn. Water the lawn deep about 2 days before appling fertilizer. Apply the fertilizer at the rates mentioned, then water the lawn until all grandulars have dissolved and melted into the soil. These materials are economical sources of plant food, but may burn unless distributed carefully and evenly, and watered well.

If the grass and soil is dry when you fertilize, a large amount of the fertilizer will run off the soil When soil is dry it tends to resist water penetration for a long period of time, especially sand.

These materials are available from all nurseries in large bags and are about one-tenth as expensive as some of the commerical brands and actually do a better job if applied right.

Reagan Praises Realtors

Governor Ronald Reagan has commended California Realtors for "working to solve the problems in our cities, towns, and enviroment" as they relate to real estate.

The commendation was in an open letter saluting the state's Realtors as they observe Realtor Week May 23-29 with special events and activities.

The governor's letter said:

"I am pleased to salute the Realtors of this state as they join more than 94,000 Realtors in the nation in observing Realtor Week May 23 to May 29.

"Private ownership of real property and its wide distribution is one of the principal safeguards of this free society, a goal successfully pursued by Realtors and others in the real estate industry as part of their professional activities. Two-thirds of our families in California and the nation own their homes.

"Realtors, through their pledge to uphold the Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, their self-discipline through local boards of Realtors, and their participation in civic affairs, have contributed toward public confidence in real estate ownership.

"By the very nature of their profession, Realtors assume the respensibility for influence on the growth and health of our communities and our state in real estate matters. They have assumed this with credit, working to solve the problems in our cities, towns, and environment, most recently through activities of their Make America Better Program.

I commend them for these activities."

OPEN LETTER TO ALL RESIDENTS, PROPERTY OWNERS AND BUSINESS MEN IN THE CITY OF SEASIDE

Dear Friends:

Do you remember when it was "in" to say, "You can't fight City Hall," and mean it? Well, thank God, those days are gone forever. People are over this country are fighting city officials who hide behind the thick paneled doors of City Halls. People are fighting City Halls and winning, do you know why? They won because they took the trouble to find out what was going on and they cared enough about their cities to get involved.

That's exactly the purpose of this letter -- to get you, the voting citizen of Seaside concerned and involved in saving your City. Right now, Seaside is in bad financial trouble and heading for more of the same because of the bad judgement of its Mayor.

Let me give you one brief example of how Mayor Haddad and certain of his friends try to operate the City of Seaside. In June 1968, the people of Seaside marked their ballots by a better than 2 to 1 majority to rezone the unslightly Laguna Grande area for retail business and light industry. (This area encompasses the east side of Del Monte Avenue, to Lake Laguna Grande, to Seaside's southern city limit). The will of the overwhelming majority of voters was to rezone this particular area.

The 1968-Haddad-dominated City Council sat on the will of the people for two long years. They refused to rezone. The voters underscored their wish for rezoning by voting those Councilmen out of office in 1970. The main issue of that campaign? Rezoning Laguna Grande.

In the meantime a private developer had approached the City with an offer to provide all the private financing needed to improve this blighted area by building a shopping center. At no cost to the taxpayer, four positive benefits were offered to Seaside:

(1) New jobs
(2) New money coming into the city from new property taxes and new sales taxes
(3) The replacement of an unsightly area with a modern, clean shopping center
(4) A relaxation of tensions in the community.

Did you hear what happened to this project? No! That's not at all surprising because our Mayor put the lid on any news about it. He didn't bother to tell the voters in Seaside that such an offer had been made. Know why? Maybe you can guess, Mayor Haddad and certain of his friends had a project of their own slated for the Laguna Grande area -- a project that would have cost the taxpayers of Seaside plenty and possibly led them down the same path as Monterey's recent urban renewal fiasco.

In other words, the Mayor tucked a revenue producing, private enterprise project away in his inside pocket and tried to sell you on the highly impractical tax drain plan of the Seaside Convention Center.

The only thing that saved Seaside, so far, from this Haddad machine (you pay, we profit) disaster, was the current Seaside City Council. If Seaside ever needed anything it needs Gerald McGrath, Pearl Carey, Oliver Murray and Stephen Ross sitting on the City Council.

When election time rolls around remember that this is the City Council that favors the use of private resources to develop property that you, the people, voted to have rezoned. They are looking after your best interests and they respond to your wishes.

The handwriting is on the wall. Don't fall into the same urban renewal mire that Monterey did. On June 1, 1971 vote to have the current City Council take over Seaside's urban renewal program.

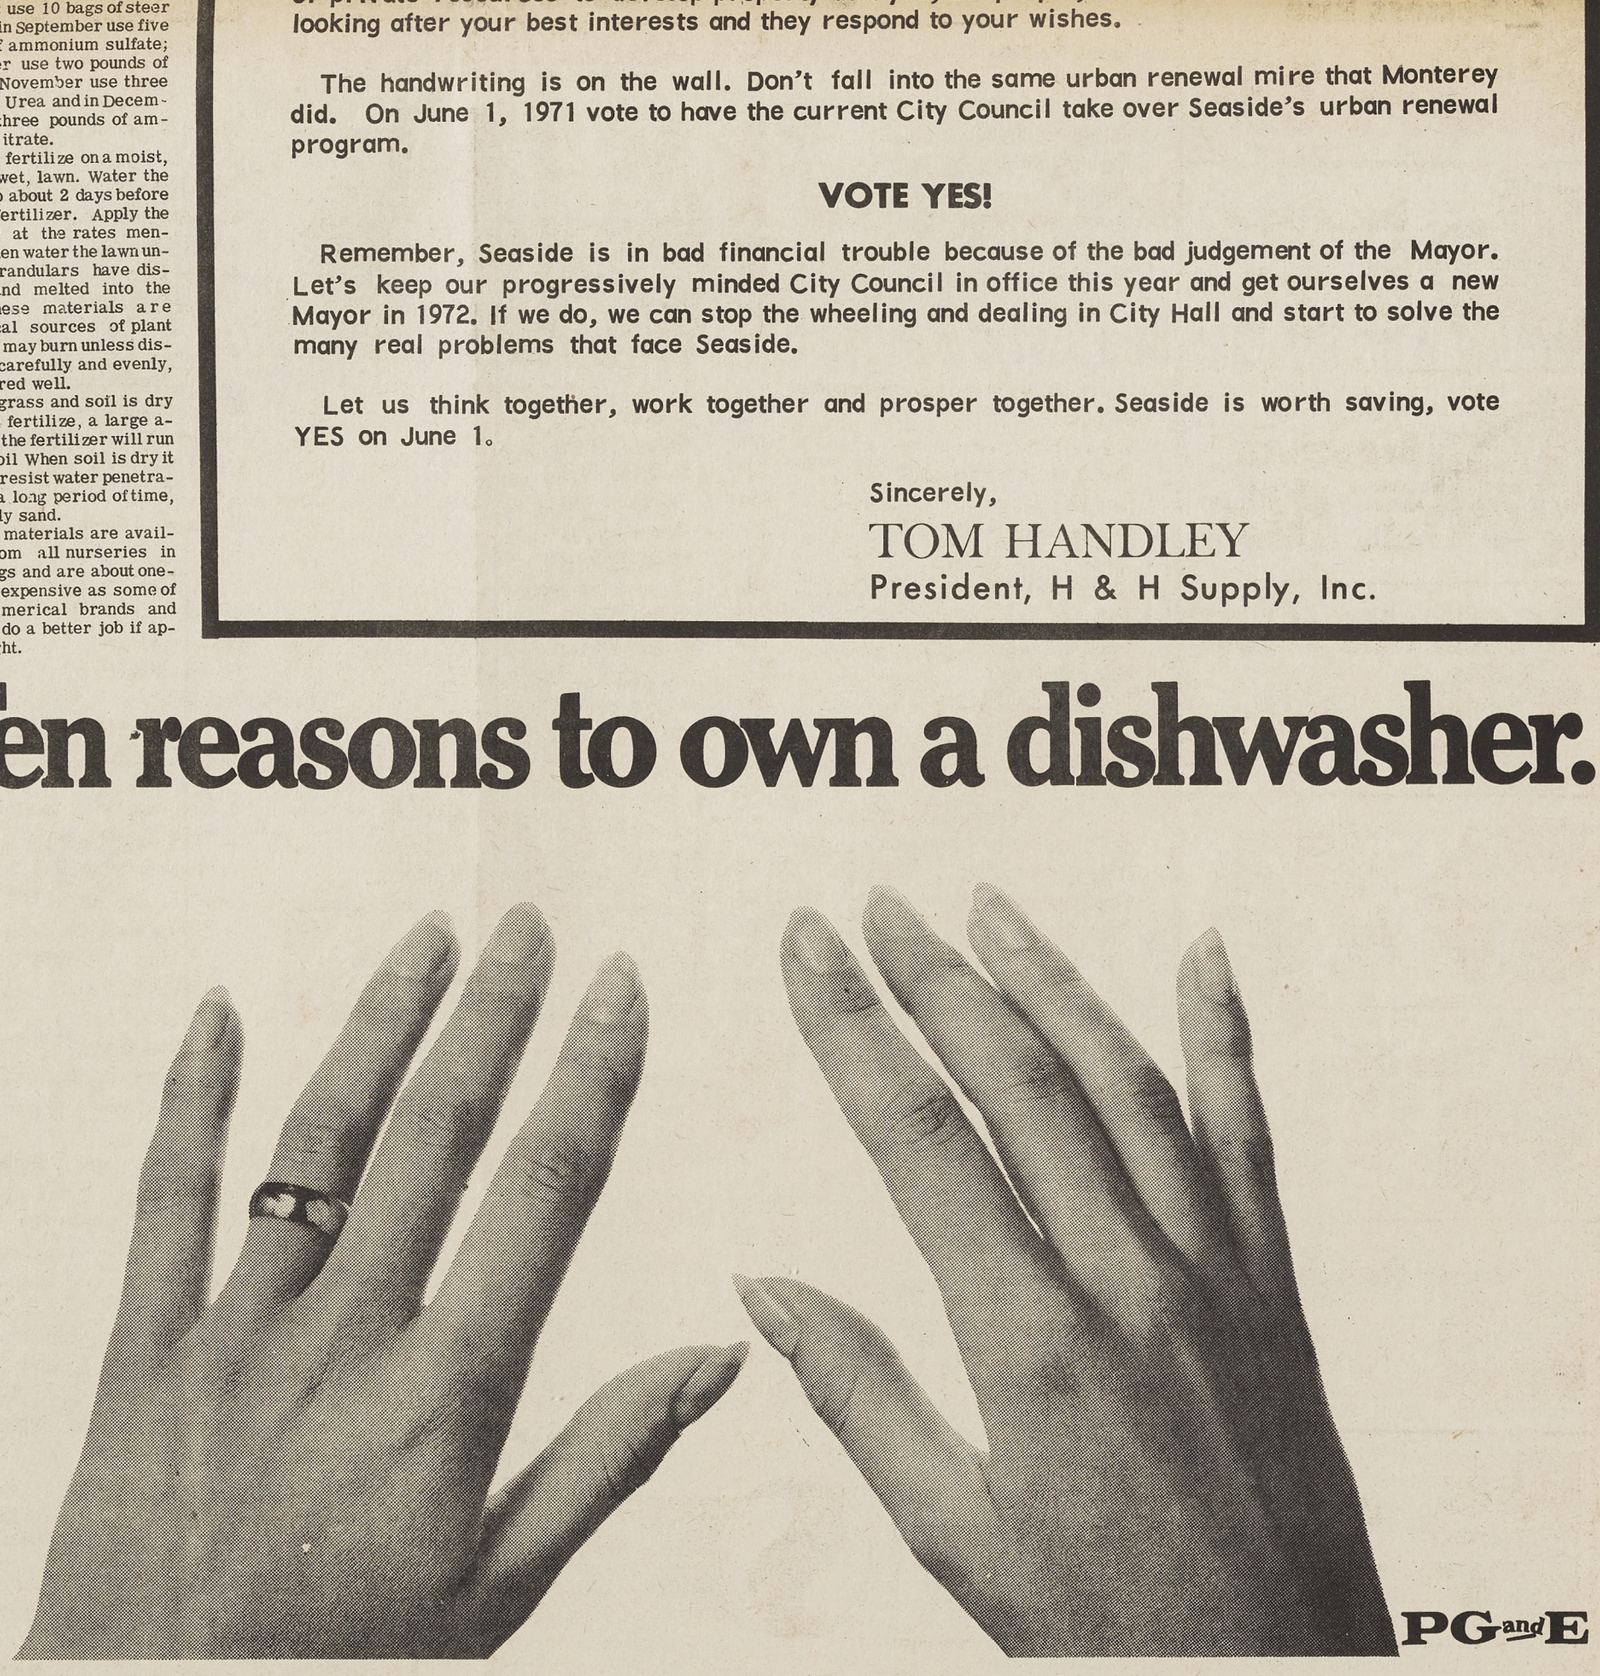

VOTE YES!

Remember, Seaside is in bad financial trouble because of the bad judgement of the Mayor. Let's keep our progressively minded City Council in office this year and get ourselves a new Mayor in 1972. If we do, we can stop the wheeling and dealing in City Hall and start to solve the many real problems that face Seaside.

Let us think together, work together and prosper together. Seaside is worth saving, vote YES on June 1.

Sincerely,

center, which might provide jobs for some more residents of the community, was not in keeping with the grandiose scheme he and the urban redevelopment agency had-i.e. to put a tourist-motel type of development in the Laguna Grande. They had hoped that by hiding the plans they could go ahead with the recall of the present councilmen and then, after they had removed these elected representatives, they could bury the shopping center and go ahead with their tourist scheme. While we are not implying that the construction of the shopping center would be an economically feasible idea, we would like to know WHY WAS IT HIDDEN FROM THE ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES for so long.

To get the plans out into the open, the city council members had to publicly ask the city manager and the mayor to make the plans available to the council, which should have known about it all along. After these plans were finally presented, there was a 45-day extension to stall the consideration again in the hopes that this would extend beyond the time of the recall and the plans could be buried again. That they have not succeeded in completely hiding this project is due to the diligence of our present city council members and people like Mr. Tom Handley of H and H Supply. The 45-day extension will be up tomorrow (Thursday) and I understand that the councilmen and representatives of the developers have asked that consideration be given to those plans at tomorrows council meeting.

The letter from Tom Handley and this column have tried in a small way to convey to the citizens of Seaside the nature of the conspiracy that has existed between Mayor Haddad and the urban redevelopment agency under the expert guidance of their attorney, Saul Weingarten. The reason for the "rule-or-ruin" tactics used by the mayor to recall anyone who opposes his schemes becomes quite obvious when you begin to examine what has been hidden beneath the surface. All of this can be stopped once and for all by voting to return control of the urban redevelopment aency to the hands of our elected representatives. If we don't like the way they handle the business of this city we at least elect new people at the next election - that is the democratic way. We have no control of the appointed agency members at the present time.

Letter To The Editor

Editor: (The following is a letter I sent to Seaside City Manager Milton Farrell, which I woul like to have made public.)

If you recall, at the end of our last Council meeting I requested that the prospective developers appear at our next Council meeting, and give a progress report on their proposed development in the Laguna Grande area. You pointed up at that time, that the forty-five (45) days as indicated at their last appearance had not expired at that time.

The forty-five day period will have expired by pur next regular meeting which will be May 20, 1971. This letter is a reminder, requesting that you notify the prospective developers concerned, and any other interested prospective developers to appear before the Council at that meeting. If any developer has plans that should not be exposed in public session, I request that you arrange through the Mayor, and members of the Council, for a Executive Session to discuss these matters. It is very important in my opinion that this matter be taken up at the next Council meeting, because time is passing, and our community can not continue to wait for industrial development.

Warm personal regards.

Sincerely,

Bob Wood Reports

Last week I voted f r a bill that would allow our public education system to allow instruction on the dangers of venereal disease. The bill, AB950, by Assemblywoman March Fong, passed the Assembly by a vote of 51 to 11.

Several Assemblymen apparently preferred not to vote on the issue because it was a touchy and highly controversial issue. Those that voted against it did so apparently because for the offering of such family-like instruction in the school.

I am not ashamed of my vote because I honestly feel that in many cases the parents have failed to warn their children of the fangers of venereal disease or even discuss the subject of sex to any degree.

The author of the bill says as parents and educators we have hidden from our responsibility to talk to young people frankly and openly about venereal disease. This embarrassed silence has thus allowed venereal disease to reach epidemic proportions in our State.

Public Health experts tell us that venereal disease reported cases in the 15 to 19 year old age groups have risen 584 percent in the past decade in California and that there are four times as many unreported cases as there are reported cases because of the social embarrassment involved in reporting to their family doctor or their parents. I hope the measure will be a step in the right direction.

From a Legislator's viewpoint it is listed as a communicable disease and costs the taxpayers millions of dollars in treatment costs.

Who Cares

By Mel Vercoe

Venereal disease is now an epidemic. If it was scarlet fever or polio or typhoid fever we would be quite alarmed, but VD is not harmful except that it has bad side effects - it kills; it sterilizes; it gets into the brain and puts its owner in a mental institution; it blinds; it cripples with rheumatism (not regular rheumatism) and it doesn't care who it burts.

One thing good about VD - it is a taboo subject and in the eyes of some people the whole problem will disappear if we ignore it. A California community school board recently tried to save some of its pupils the trials and tribulations of contracting VD by having VD prevention courses set up, but was not permitted to do so. Two years ago a state senator by the name of John G. Schmitz, a John Bircher from Orange County, managed to get a law passed that makes it unlawful to mention sex organs in schools and until some change is made in this law the only instruction in VD prevention that our young people will get will be given by doting parents or be classmates or by personal experience.

Sen. Schmitz' philosophy is not easy to understand. A few years ago he went all out to prevent progress in meaningful dissemination of birth control information, so he must want everyone to have as many children as humanly possible, whether their parents or the world can support them or not. Now, he is equally determined to destroy as many lives and babies, both born and unborn, as possible, but then I have never had much luck understanding the John Birch philosophy anyway.

I know a number of John Birchers quite well - all of them really nice people and I am sure they mean well. But I question their good sense when they accuse almost everyone since George Washington of being a communist if he didn't happen to line up with their particular ideas as expressed in their own special literature. When they accuse Senator X or Congressman Y of being treasonous or a communist agent, and you look back at the record and realize that neither X nor Y has the intelligence to be a spy or a subversive agent, or to even be a public official, then you have to wonder at the judgment of the accusers.

And, as I have said a number of times, there would be no point at all for the communists to install agents in high places in our government. It would be impossible for a whole trainload of communists in our Congress to do as good a job of destroying our country's future as is being done by the super-idiocy of our own elected officials. I think the John Birchers are being overly kind when they give some of our people credit for so much intelligence.

If we had a society of some kind as dedicated to stamping out greed as the John Birchers are to stamping out communism, then we might see some light at the end of the tunnel - we might even wind up with form of representative government, something like that envisioned by our founders.

Yours Social Security

Q -- Does the VA provide any educational program for veterans disabled in military service?

A -- Yes. There is a rehabilitation program for veterans who suffered serious service-connected disabilities. For information on this program, contact the nearest VA office, or your local service organization representative.

Q -- I was hospitalized in a VA facility for more than 21 days for an injury I received on my job. Would I be entitled to a temporary VA 100-percent rating for this period of hospitalization?

A-- No. Only veterans hospitalized for more than 21 consecutive days for treatment of service-connected disabilities may qualify for this benefit.

Q -- I plan to attend college under the GI Bill, and understand that I must submit a certificate of attendance card. Is this true?

A -- Yes, veterans attending college under the GI Bill are required to return a certification card to the VA during the last month of each enrollment period. Students studying under the GI Bill below the college level must submit a certificate of attendance card every month.

Q -- I have read that some national cemeteries are filling up, and well soon close. Will VA pay an additional allowance toward purchasing a plot in a private cemetery?

a -- There is no provision for VA to pay anything upon the death of a veteran except a statutory $250 burial allowance, unless he carries insurance administered by the VA. The Army, not VA, is in charge of the National Cemetery System.

Q -- Will the increased Social Security benefits cause me to have to pay back money to the VA if I go over the income limitation?

A -- No. Your VA pension will be continued through the end of 1971. On receipt of your annual income questionnaire at the end of the year, your pension will be adjusted as appropriate.

Q -- I am 62 years old, and want to convert my National Service Life Insurance term policy to the modified life plan. What premium will I pay?

A -- Sorry, you cannot convert to the modified life plan after age 60. However, Ordinary Life has the lowest premium of the other plans available at your age.

Q -- Is a veteran penalized if he pays off a GI home mortgage loan before it is due?

A -- No. A GI loan may be prepaid without penalty at any time.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

Donte L. Scott enjoyed his third birthday party at his home on Saturday, May 1, with approximately 10 youngsters of his age. He is the son of Melva Scott and grandson of Dolores Walker of Seaside.

The little ones were supervised by the parent as well as mothers of the invited guests, while they played games, ate plenty of cake, ice cream, candy and drink lots of punch. Children also enjoyed playing with some of the toys the birthday boy received.

Albert F. Gaines of Monterey, hosted a belated birhtday party in his honor on Saturday, May 8. Many of his personal friends attended and enjoyed delicious bar-b-que- and "Chicago" dinners.

In the absence of Mrs. Gaines, who is vacationing, Joseph Crawford and Mrs. Wilbert Hopkins assisted with plans and also served in the capacity of host and hostess.

Mr. Gaines, a very active individual in the community, is employed with Metropolitan Life Insurance Company in Monterey. He is a member of the Elks, Lions, Masons and Strivers.

Dolores Walker of Seaside was given a surprised birthday party by some of her close friends, in the home of Therressia White, also of Seaside, on Friday night, May 7. Oh, What a surprise it was for her!

Mrs. Walker is an Electrocardiogram Technician at the United States Army Hostipal, Fort Ord, where she has been since 1966. Her daughter, Melva, resides in Seaside. She has one son, Donnie Scott, presently serving in the United States Army, Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi There, Fellow Peninsulans:

The major happening around the Peninsula this past weekend was Peace! Or should I say Peace D'resistance (smiles). A F.T.A. (Free the Army) Cabaret was held at the Monterey Fairgrounds on Saturday afternoon, Saturday night, and Sunday afternoon. The U.S.S.F. revue was sponsored by Jane Fonda and a local peace movement organization.

The revue featured such outstanding entertainers as Len Chandler, a popular black guitarist, who is also a poet, writer and former entertainer on the television program "Soul." Len charmed the overflow audience with many versatile renditions of anti-war songs, including an arrangement depicting the plight of Lt. Calley and his squad mowing down the Vietnamese villagers because they were stoned on "Saigon kill a commie green grass." Seems like some of the young hipsters in the audience got carried away with the lyrics of this song because "Saigon" or some kind of grass hung mighty heavy in the section where four of us from the "establishment" were sitting. Wait! I better rephrase that! Two of us were honey colored and not able to identify with the establishment. Well anyway we almost got stoned by atmospheric contact (smile) !!! But it was "delovely" being among a humble peaceminded group of human beings.

Back to Len Chandler. He sang another stirring song that he asked the audience to participate in. Some began singing, but some were unable to unlease their K.K.K. tongues and help out (smile) !!! The song was a black solidarity song, called "Move on Over or We Will Move on Over You," sung to the tune of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" (smiles). How Ironic!!!

Following Len Chandler on the show was Johnny Rivers, popular guitarist and folk singer who really turned the audience on with some of his hit songs. Climaxing the musical set for the evening was Big Brother and the Holding Company. (I can see where they got that name - Nick the vocalist in the group must weigh 300 pounds, but baby he's got a lot of soul.) They really "sock it to ya," and make everybody feel like brothers and sisters in the soul way.

Jane Fonda and a group of her Hollywood friends put on an anti-war skit that really socked the anti-war message to ya! "I almost, had made my mind up to march in the peace movement on May 15, but I decided against this because I do not wish for my telephone to be tapped or house to be bugged!!" (smiles). One of the skits had two of the actors acting like stadium announcers at a horse race, but instead of a horse race it was a aerial bombing race in Vietnam with both sides scoring hits and victories. This skit was hilarious, but, in a sad sense, it was so realistic. It was also announced to the audience that more shows like this would be held if the GIs would demand it.

On another "peaceful scene," the NAACP was doing their thing down the road at the Hyatt House. "Ye Olde Snoopy," made it just in time to witness the suspense and drama of the crowning of Mrs. NAACP of 1971. Sherman Smith, emcee for the evening, introduced (I quote) "his long lovely slender wife Liz," who was chairman of the coronation ball. Next was the announcement of the runners-up: Mrs. Clydie Carter, 1st runner-up; Mrs. Dolores Bates 2nd runner-up. The new Mrs. NAACP for 1971 was Mrs. Nellie Lewis, who was crowned by Mrs. NAACP of 1970, lovely and charming Mrs. Velma Augustine, who graciously escorted the new queen around the ballroom floor to take her bows before the audience.

Following the coronation the musical group, the Capris, set the audiences toes to tapping with their swinging music.

GUEST - Leonard H. Carter, Regional Director of NAACP, will be on hand for local chapter meeting, which will be held Tuesday, May 25, at 8 p.m. in the Monterey Library Community Room.

New Exhibit Is At Ord

A new exhibit of oil paintings and charcoal drawings on display in Art Gallery No. 1 of the Ft. Ord Post Crafts Shop is the work of Walter L. Avery, instructor in drawing, sketching and basic art techniques at the post.

The show is open to the public through June 5 from 1 to 9 p.m. on Wednesdays through Fridays; from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and from 1 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

The Post Crafts Shop is located at the corner of 2nd Avenue and 8th Street.

Avery studied painting and drawing with Oudot and Ricardon, well known European artists, at the Ecole des Beaux Arts at Besancon, France. He also attended the Bazot School of Fashion Design in Paris and the Ecole d'Art at Montparnasse, Paris, where he studied painting, drawing and sculpture.

While in military service, Avery was an illustrator at SHAPE Headquarters in Paris and served in the Cartographic Section of the 656th Engineer Battalion in Heidelberg.

In 1968 one of his oil still life paintings won third place in the All Army Art Contest in Europe.

In a recent art show at Seaside City Hall, another of his still life paintings won an honorable mention.

Currently Mr. Avery is studying contemporary painting and drawing at Monterey Peninsula College.

Booklet Tells Of Children's Heart Defects

If a child is born with a heart defect, he has a better chance today than ever before to overcome this handicap and to lead a normal adult life, says that Central Mission Trails Heart Association.

Recent progress in diagnosis and in surgery now makes it possible to operate on many of the defects once thought to be hopeless, according to the booklet. "If Your Child Has A Congenital Heart Defect," available without charge from the local organization.

It was prepared primarily for parents, but also is helpful to adult patients, physicians and nurses, says the Heart Association.

The closing section of the booklet deals with services in the community--for medical and surgical treatment, for aftercare and for rehabilitation--that are available to the parent of a child born with a heart defect.

For more information on these and other points covered by the booklet, ask the Heart Association for a free copy of "If Your Child Has a Congenital Heart Defect." Write to 541-A South Main Street, Salinas, California 93901.

Three Fitch Students Are Winners

Three ninth grade students at Fitch Junior High School, Fort Ord, are preliminary winners in the junior high division of the Redwood Region Conservation Council's 1971 fire prevention poster contest, for Monterey, San Matro, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz Counties, according to word received by the Fitch teacher, Mrs. Ann Konig.

The students are Daniel Ziegler, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ziegler, 274 Cocky Drive, Marina; Grace Moy, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Po Moy, 341 Parson Circle, Marina and Arthur Layson, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Layson of 3009 Independence Avenue, Marina.

Although none of the three Fitch students were final winners, all will receive a certificate of appreciation for their entries from the Redwood Region Conservation Council.

MPC Staging Apple Tree

"The Apple Tree" - three plays in one - will be staged by the Monterey Peninsula College Players Friday through Sunday, May 21-23, and again Wednesday through Saturday, May 26-29, in the MPC Theater.

Directed by Morgan Stock as his last production before going on a half-year sabbatical leave, the trio of one-act musicals was created by Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock, who also authored "Fiddler on the Roof."

"Adam and Eve," based on a story by Mark Twain, will open the show. The three young actors who will appear as Adam, Eve and "Snake" are Mike Smith, who had acted at Monteret's First Theatre; Rosemaria Coleman, last seen in "J.B." at MPC and Orlando Bonner, who had leading roles in the college's productions of "West Side Story," "Midsummer Night's Dream" and "J. B."

"The Lady or the Tiger," based on the famed story by Frank Stockton, features Terry Hett, last seen in "J. B." as Barbara; Bill Galloway formerly the "Geraldine" character in "Mindsummer Night's Dream," as Sanjar; Jim LaSage, a Vietnam veteran, as The Balladeer; Loren Boddy, as the king and Andy Andrews, who "dancesa beautiful tiger," according to Stock.

"Passionella," based on a story by Jules Feiffer, stars Brit Lind, who was last seen in the Studio Theatre production of "There's a Girl in My Soup" and Jason Cronin, who was in "West Side" and "J. B."

Members of the acting classes complete the cast as chorus members.

Drama student Granville Andrews, assisted by Jane Wheeler, is choreographer. Faculty members Dan Haerle and Ruth Allan are in charge of music and sets.

Tickets are available at the theatre box office, open week days between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. (telephone 375-0455) and at Abinante's Music Store, Monterey.
